CVI Melles Griot honored as a 2010 New Mexico Technology Flying 40 Award Recipient!

On Tuesday, June 22, 2010 CVI Melles Griot was presented with the New Mexico Technology 2010 Flying 40 award and was recognized as one of the fastest growing technology companies headquartered in New Mexico.

The greater Albuquerque region was recently ranked #1 by Forbes magazine as the “best place for business and careers” and CVI Melles Griot is honored to be a major contributor to the thriving technology based economy of New Mexico.

When asked by the Albuquerque Journal to divulge the “secret to your team’s success”, CEO Stuart Schoenmann simply stated that we are “creating a vision for where we want to be in 5 years, paying attention to details, and empowering our employees to deliver on the vision”.
